

Restraint Competency Assessment

The following employee demonstrated the proper technique for re-securing a tied restraint to the patient bed. The restraint was secured so that a “slip knot” configuration for easy and quick removal in case of an emergency. The Technologist will seek assistance from the RN for removal and re-application of the restraint device to the patient.

Employee Name: _____

Date: _____

Observer: _____