Employee Orientation Guidelines

Objective:

The orientation of new employees was developed to insure all newly hired staff receives information that prepares the employee for the work environment.

Directive:

In coordination with the managers from the sections of radiology the Educational Coordinator will assume the responsibilities of basic orientation for all radiology employees.

Policy:

1. See each departments Orientation check off sheet. Each topic will be discussed with the employee by the appropriate persons.