GRANT REVIEW

*At the time of submission, if critiques are not yet received, this application will not be considered for funding during this review cycle.

The format for the research plan will be determined by the funding agency (e.g., NIH, NSF, USDA, ACS) that provided recent support to the applicant.

Include the following in your Bridging Award Application

1. The most recent version of the proposal under consideration must be submitted along with reviewer summary sheets.

2. Also to be included in proposal is the response to the reviewers’ critique, either as a separate section, page limit = 3, or included in the body of a revised submission.

3. Relevance to Heart Disease and/or Cancer. Briefly state the relevance of proposed research to heart disease and/or cancer. The Edward P. Stiles funds were given to LSUHSC-S for the purpose of encouraging research in heart disease and cancer
This section must be completed in order for the application to be evaluated.
